The Mill Creek Watershed

The Mill Creek Watershed Council of Communities is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization offering programs and services to protect and improve the Mill Creek Watershed and its communities, affecting the lives of more than 450,000 residents. The Council, founded in 1995, empowers local governments, businesses and citizens in the Greater Cincinnati area to protect and value our local lakes, streams and rivers.

Current programs include: flood damage reduction, stormwater management, improved water quality, stream bank stabilization, wetland restoration, and green solutions to storm water runoff (rain gardens, green roofs, etc.)
