

Groundwater Guardian Green Site Workshop

Groundwater is important in so many ways. Over 90 percent of our region utilizes groundwater as a source of drinking water. Industry, agriculture, and recreation also rely on groundwater to help their businesses thrive.

Learn how your organization can implement more groundwater friendly practices, help our region, and receive national recognition through the Groundwater Guardian Green Site program.

WORKSHOP INFORMATION

Friday, August 16, 2013

9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon

Butler Soil & Water Conservation District

1802 Princeton Road
Hamilton, Ohio 45011

There is no fee to attend, but pre-registration is required.

Materials provided.

RSVP to:

Theresa McGeady
tmcgeady@miamiconservancy.org
(937) 223-1271

By Friday, August 9, 2013

AGENDA

8:45... Registration

9:00... Introductions

9:15... Groundwater Green Site
Program Overview

9:45... GGS Application

10:15... Edgewood High School, a GGS

10:45... Funding opportunities

11:00... Tour of MillerCoors, a GGS
(optional)

12:00... Adjourn

MIAMI
CONSERVANCY
DISTRICT

